Auburn Police Department Detective Bureau Press Release

“Auburn Police Requesting Public’s Help Identifying Larceny Suspect”

On March 30th, 2009 Auburn Police were dispatched to Wegmans on the report of a larceny. The store loss prevention officer witnessed the suspect described as white female steal numerous items and then leave the store without paying for the items. The loss prevention officer attempted to make contact with the female but she fled as a passenger in a red four door passenger car. The Auburn Police Department is requesting the public’s assistance with the identification of the female as she was caught on Wegmans surveillance video shoplifting the merchandise.

Anyone with information pertaining to this case or having information regarding the suspect’s identity is encouraged to call the Auburn Police Department at 315-253-3235. Your calls can remain anonymous.
