“Auburn Man Arrested for Assault of 2 Year Old”

On Thursday August 27th, 2009 at approximately 4:02pm Auburn Police Officers were dispatched to Auburn Memorial Hospital on the report from a Cayuga County Child Protective case worker of a possible assault to a two year old child. Upon Officers arrival it appeared that the child was suffering from an injury to her face from unknown means. It was being reported that the child had fallen thus causing the injury to the child's face. An Auburn Police Detective was called to further investigate the case and it was later determined that the child's babysitter/uncle had struck the child in the face causing swelling and bruising.

Auburn Police subsequently arrested Scott McCall for the assault of his two year old niece. McCall was arraigned at Auburn Police Headquarters by Judge Thomas Shamon and subsequently remanded to Cayuga County Jail without bail.
